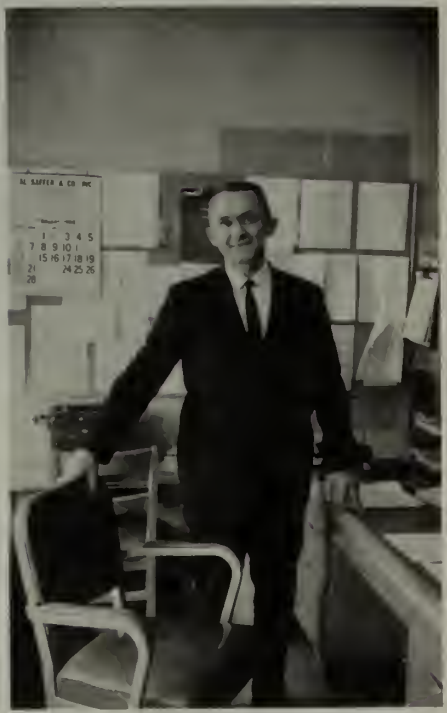
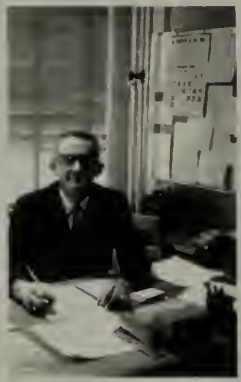
Mr. D. H. Young

Advisor and Friend





It takes a noble person to undertake a difficult task and do it well. But it takes an even greater person to succeed with humility. For these and other qualitles, we the students of Central High wish to honor one who has given so much of himself in order that others might benefit. In him exists the authority of a president, the competence of a banker, the patience of a doctor, and the understanding of a friend. In recognition of his untiring devotion to the aims and principles of Central High, we the Senior Class of 1966, dedicate this edition of THE SPARTAN to Mr. D. Hoyle Young.

Central High School

Lexington, North Carolina

The word image can be defined in many ways. It can be a mental picture, an idea, a likeness, or a reflection. High school days are filled with images, mental pictures taken by the eye, developed in the mind, and preserved by the memory.

In this 1966 Spartan we have tried to capture in pictures some of the moments that highlight the school year. We present to you our image of our school with the sincere hope that in this picture story we have also caught your own special image of Central High School.

ADMINISTRATION

"A teacher affects eternity. He can never tell where his influence stops."

—Henry Brooks Adams

For this reason a teacher finds himself devoting countless hours to his work. Often he arrives in the still morning hours long before the bells begin to announce the beginning of a new school day. And long after the last bell has said good-bye to the students, he finds himself walking through an empty corridor hearing his own tired footsteps and the lingering echo of laughing voices of youth that in a few short hours will become reality again. To these teachers and all the other people who plan and execute so well all the necessary duties to make our school what it is, we the students say a heartfelt thank-you.

D. H. Young . . . Principal

The many facets of a principal's personality are reflected every day in his administration and his relationship to the students. This demands that he have the patience of a parent, the understanding of a minister, the wisdom of a scholar, the courage of a soldier, and the physical strength of a giant. We find all of these qualities in Mr. Young and putting them together we feel we have a "gem" of a principal.

Principal's Message:

Central High School students have long associated my philosophy, "Remember Who You Are," with our school activities. We have shared this thought, often with amusements, often more seriously, but always, I think, with full awareness of its deep meaning.

The longer we live, the more important it becomes that we know, and accept, and believe in, ourselves as individuals. It is necessary that we become a part of society, the "crowd" but it is vitally necessary, imperative, that we not lose our individual identity. As long as we "Remember Who We Are," we will not lose that identity.

The world is crying for leadership. Real leadership comes from those individuals who have respect for themselves as well as respect for their fellowman. Individuals who have a sense of direction, a sense of values, who are aware of the dignity and worth of every human being, inevitably find themselves in places where their services and leadership are needed. They "Know Who They Are," and they can help many wanderers to find the way.

A hope, a prayer, is that no matter where you go, no matter how long you live, no matter how great your success, you will never forget to "REMEMBER WHO YOU ARE."

Sincerely,

D.H. Young

ACTIVITIES

We hear a lot about school spirit within the walls of C.H.S. Sometimes we think of it only as being noisy and cheering loudly at a pep rally. But school spirit is more... it is the ghost of a smile from a friend to a friend... it's congratulating a winning team... comforting a losing team... picking up a coke bottle that mars the lawn... painting scenery for the prom... selling candy... working on a yearbook or school paper... encouraging a shy classmate... being happy with one who has won an honor... saying thank you for a service rendered... being proud of your school, C.H.S.

Action on the Field

Out of bounds, but still on my feet.

Football players must play through rain, sleet, snow, or hail. An excellent example of this was the Central-Denton game. The boys weren't afraid of being hit and knocked down. Once down, they were only afraid of being drowned.

Touchdown Boys, Touchdown!

Where did they all go, coach?

Man, am I glad I wasn't in on that play.

President of Student Body

With a warm smile, a soft word, an easy manner, and sincere devotion, Rodney Fritts became a Student Government President we will long remember. New students were made to feel welcome and old students were made to feel a part of the body which Rodney headed so well. He gave meaning and purpose to an office that is otherwise without significance.

Rodney not only must lead the student body, but also he must excel in other areas.

Executive Board

The Executive Board has the responsibility of carrying out our school policies. They must always hold true to the aims and principles of Central High.

Officers are from left to right: Rodney Fritts, President; Rick Sexton, Vice President; Rita Garner, Secretary-Treasurer; Jeffrey Tarleton, Reporter; and Mr. Thomas, Advisor.

Debating Club

The 1965-66 debate topic concerns labor management. Much time and preparation must go into each argument.

First Row: Marie Allen, Melinda Foster, Rita Garner, Cris Barnes. Second Row: Melanie Hartley, Marquerita Sandrock, Judy Allen, Jeannie Parks. Third Row: Doug Carter, Mrs. Inman, Sponsor.

Senior Chorus

It takes the combination of a talented chorus, and able instructor, a fine musician, and good music, to make a successful Senior Chorus. Since we have such a combination this year, the chorus has undertaken selections from "Oklahoma," "South Pacific," and "Sound of Music." But the key to success is practice, practice, practice!

Miss Robbins
"Leader of the Pack"

Melanie Hartley
Pianist

This year's Senior Chorus, which is composed of over sixty melodious voices, is considered one of the best Central has ever produced.

CLASSES

Freshman, Sophomore, Junior, Senior—the four most important words in a teenager's vocabulary. Freshmen, with fast beating hearts, puzzled expression, and excitement shining in their eyes quickly step up to Sophomores who move slowly it seems on to become Juniors full of anticipation at becoming Seniors. All too soon we become Seniors looking back with misty eyes but also forward with fear and eager anticipation. Four years of learning, growing, loving, and laughing end all too soon. But hand in hand we begin the walk toward the future and hand in hand we face the future unafraid.

ADVERTISERS

Without our advertisers there would be no Spartan yearbook. Their financial contributions through advertising in this book makes it all possible. We realize that our Circulation cannot begin to compare with that of newspaper and radio circulation. Yet our merchants and friends continue to support us year after year. As a way of expressing our thanks to them, the next time you need merchandise or a service rendered; don't look in the yellow pages; look in the 1966 yearbook. Our advertisers are ready to serve you.
